

DP SERIES 100% POLYPROPYLENE DEPTH CARTRIDGE

The DP Series Depth Cartridge is a cost effective solution to particulate filtration. Using the spun bonded/melt blown process of production to create a true depth cartridge the DP series Depth Cartridge is suitable for removing a range of particulates in various applications.

Maximum 90 degrees operating temperature (internal support core available on request)

- Maximum differential pressure 1.5 Bar
- Available in 10" to 40" and with various end cap configurations
- FDA approved materials, no binders or adhesives used in construction
- Micron Ratings from 1um-150um nominal and absolute
- Large diameter (big blue style) available

When ordering please state the Length (mm) Micron Rating (1-150um)

Diameter (Standard/Large) & if you require a core.